

Tony Mathison
325-641-5726, Brown County Campus
254-965-8875, Stephenville Campus
tmathison@rangercollege.edu

Professional Experience:

- 2010-present; Adjunct History Professor; Ranger College.
- 2008-2009; Dual-Credit History Professor; HPU & Bangs High School.
- 1998-2000; College Football Coach, Developmental Math Teacher; HPU.
- 1982-2011; Teacher in the areas of History, Special Education, & Physical Education; Texas and Florida Public Schools.
- 1982-2010; Athletic Coach; Football, three head coaching jobs; Girls Basketball, three head coaching jobs; Boys and Girls Tennis; two head coaching jobs; Girls and Boys Cross Country; Texas and Florida Public Schools.

Research:

- M.Ed. Thesis Research; “A Statistical Analysis of the Run and Shoot Offense.”, Turned in to Dr. Bill Turner, UNT library collection; University of North Texas, Denton, Texas.
- The Methodist Circuit Rider in Frontier Texas; A graduate level research paper concerning the growth of the Methodist Church in Frontier Texas during the 19th century; Turned in to Dr. Shirley Eoff; Angelo State University, San Angelo, Texas.
- The Attack on the US by Mexico, A graduate level research paper concerning the 1916 Pancho Villa led invasion of the US in Columbus, New Mexico, Turned in to Dr. Don Zelman; Tarleton State University, Stephenville, Texas.

PUBLICATIONS:

- An analysis of Solomon Northup’s unknown circumstances of death, co-authored with Cayla Mathison, “Theories Behind How Solomon Northup Died”, The National History Club’s Monthly Newsletter, April Edition, 2002.
- Guest Editor, Editorials about current US topics; role models (1995), President Bill Clinton (1999), President Obama (2008); USA Today.
- “Verbal Communication and Basketball”; Texas Coach Magazine, 1984.

Education:

- 2009; MA, Tarleton State University, major in History, minor in Public School Administration.
- 1987; M.Ed., University of North Texas, major in Secondary Education, minor in Kinesiology.
- 1982; BGS, Texas Christian University, major in Kinesiology

Honors and Achievements:

- MOC of a Samuel Bass Memorial Service, 8-30-2003, Marksville, Louisiana.
- Race director of an annual fund raiser, www.8hrftd.com, for The National Vietnam War Museum.
- Dean's Honor List, TCU.
- Who's Who in the South and Southwest.

Professional Organizations:

- 2008-present; Organization of American Historians.
- 1980-present; Delta Psi Kappa, Physical Education.

Personal Interest:

- Helping our 17 year old daughter, Cayla, with her tennis game and her other interests.
- Church activities.
- Travel to Mountain States.