

Andrew Boyer

817-734-8310 • aboyer@rangercollege.edu

Personal Profile

- I am a responsible, professional, and honest person with the genuine desire to teach. I am currently working as a full time instructor for Ranger Colleges Social Science department. I have experience in teaching and the drive to convey the importance of government and history in the lives of those seeking higher education.
-

Education

Tarleton State University – MA in Political Science with 18 hours of History.

Tarleton State University – BA in History.

Experience

Professional Experience

FWISD - Substitute Teacher, 2006-2007, 2012

Professional Experience

Tarleton State University – January 2010 to May 2015

- Graduate Assistant, Department of Education
 - Professional Development 1 Lab Instructor
- Adjunct Professor, Department of Education
 - Professional Development 1 Lab Instructor
- Adjunct Professor, Department of Social Science
 - History 1301 and 1302 Instructor (Face to Face)
 - Government 2305 Instructor (Hybrid Face to Face/ Online)

Ranger College Erath Campus – August 2015 to Current

- Adjunct Professor, Department of Social Sciences (Face to Face)(ITV)
 - History 1301 and 1302 Instructor
 - Government 2305 and 2306 Instructor
- Full time instructor, Department of Social Sciences (Face to Face)
 - History 1301 and 1302 Instructor
 - Government 2305 and 2306 Instructor

Skills

In each of these positions I used a combination of multimedia and extemporaneous lecture to convey the material to the students. I used Socratic method and humor to engage students in a more relaxed and conversational environment that fosters better retention of information. As an Employee of Ranger I am also responsible for academic advising.

Awards and Honors

- 2016 Adjunct of the Year Award – Ranger College

Activities

- St. Francis of Willow Park - Vestry Member – January 2010 – January 2013, January 2014-2016